

Harry Thomas Martin

The Coalition for Public Safety Training in Schools, Inc.

Mr. Martin, a retiree of 33 years with the D.C. Government, possesses proven leadership a broad thinking as evidenced by his long career. His positions with Public Works demonstrated management expertise through his roles as Auditing Supervisor, Management Analyst, and several postings as Chief in the Motor Vehicles Division.

Mr. Martin has also served Prince George's County on the Liquor Board as Deputy Liquor Inspector, as well as his participation with programs fostering youth development.

He was so recognized for the latter by the 27th Legislative District for his involvement.

Mr. Martin graduated from George Washington University with a degree in Business Administration and served with distinction from the United States Army.